The Statesman at the National Capital

Reviewing the Work of the President.

A Few Appointments Made To-day—

Henderson to be Commissioner.

Final Adjournment of the Senate—Lawton's Name Withdrawn by the President.

THE CAPITOL.

Reviewing the Nominations.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The total number of nominations sent to the senate by President Cleveland were 173, 159 of which were confirmed, two rejected and twelve left unacted upon.

The members of the Utah commission called on Secretary Lamar to-day and were assured their plan of work had his approval.

TWO APPOINTMENTS.

The president to-day appointed John R. Garrison, of Virginia, deputy first comptroller of the currency, vice Judge Tarbill, resigned, and John S. McCalmont, of Pennsylvania, commissioner of customs, vice Judge Johnson, resigned.

The Senate.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The senate last evening confirmed all but eleven of the president's nominees.

The nomination of G. Marion Moore, to be postmaster at Pleasanton, Kansas, was rejected by the senate.

At 4 o'clock the doors were reopened, and the senate resumed its legislative session.

At 4:20 p. m., Mr. Sherman moved that the senate adjourn sine die, which was carried.

In announcing the result the speaker expressed to you my obligations and thanks for the kindness and I have received at your hands. The senate stands adjourned without day.

The last message received by the senate from the president was as follows:

To the Senate of the United States: I hereby withdraw the nomination which was delivered to the senate on March 30, 1885, of Alexander R. Lawton to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Russia.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Among the nominations not acted upon by the senate are H. P. Kerochian, to be naval officer at New Orleans; J. O. Henderson, to be collector of internal revenue for the eleventh district of Indiana, and John T. McGraw, to be collector of internal revenue for the district of West Virginia.

Though the senate adjourned without confirming the nomination of Henderson to succeed Kirkpatrick, the former's commission will be issued to him and he will assume the duties of the office. Vice President Hendricks stated that he would not leave here for several weeks yet. He indorsed the application of Calvin A. Elliott, formerly a merchant of Indianapolis, for postmaster at Tucson, Ariz. Mr. Elliott will, it is expected, get the appointment.

The failure of the senate to act upon eleven of the president's nominations before adjourning sine die caused a good deal of talk here, but the fact is that only three or four of these were in any even considered in committee. They were not reached.

The Chicago Markets.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 3.—There has been an absence of activity in trading on 'Change, owing to the closing of foreign and nearly all the American exchanges; but there has been a fair aggregate trading. Prices ruled stronger for grain; provisions weaker. May wheat opened at 80½ and advanced to 81½; Oats usually strong, May advancing to 32; Corn firm, 41½ for May; May pork lower, 11 65; May lard, 6 77½.

Philadelphia.

KANE'S CAPTURE.

The American Commodore Bags two Insurgents.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Secretary Whitney received a dispatch from Commodore Kane, of the "Galena," saying: "I hold two of the most prominent insurgents who assisted in firing Aspinwall. I do not think it safe to deliver them to Columbian authorities who would permit their escape."

In consideration of the probable destitute condition of the American citizens at Aspinwall the war department has placed in the custody of Admiral Thelott fifty hospital tents to be used only in the event of destitution. Admiral Jowett left New Orleans with the "Tennessee" this morning for Aspinwall.

Two Kansas County Political Factions Exchange Shots.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LOUISVILLE, April 2.—The Rowan county fight still rages at Morehead. Hostilities were again resumed after a short armistice between the opposing factions and the firing was kept up until 10 o'clock this morning. It is not known if any one is killed or injured. Both parties keep within their respective barricades, but it is thought one man is wounded. More fighting is expected to-night. The Martin faction, about fifteen men, are entrenched in the Ginet House hotel, while the Toliver faction are said to be in possession of the town.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 2.—Adjutant General Castlemen, Secretary of State McKenzie and Judge Hines, of the appellate court, have gone to Rowan county to investigate the factional troubles there. One hundred state troops are ready to leave at a moment's notice.

Adjusting Freight Rates.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The committee of fifteen appointed yesterday by a meeting of the representatives of the principal railroads north of the Ohio river and between Buffalo and the Missouri river to formulate a plan for an association for the maintenance of rates, met this morning, but as three committees were also appointed yesterday, they were not ready to report. The time for their work was extended to April 15th.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

STILL RALLIES.

General Grant Puts Another Night Behind Him and Awakes Brighter.

The Patient Likely to Spend Easter Sunday in the Land of the Living.

This Afternoon General Grant is Worse—He Will be Buried at Washington.

A LITTLE BRIGHTER.

General Grant Passes a Comfortable Night. By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The exterior of General Grant's house presented an unusually quiet appearance last night. The outer door was closed all night.

U. S. Grant, jr., came at 4:30, but had not been sent for.

Rev. Dr. Newman left the house at 6 a. m. He said that General Grant fell asleep at 10 and slept till 5 a. m.

His throat was dressed and he seemed bright. The family was hopeful. He had no bad symptoms during the night.

THE FIRST BULLETIN.

announced that General Grant had a prolonged sleep and had taken food during the night.

His pulse was full and steady and he had no pain.

6:40 a. m.—A gentleman left the house who said that General Grant had been snatched from the grave, and the hypodermic syringe had done it.

HE WILL LIVE TO SEE EASTER SUNDAY.

General Grant rested in his chair all night, and this morning it is believed he will spend Easter Sunday with the living.

THE GENERAL'S HOME.

The house in which General Grant is now lying is a beautiful mansion of the Vanderbilts and the house that Henry Villard erected, and not far from the new cathedral. Within rifle-shot are a score of houses that cost more than $75,000 each to build. It is in Sixty-sixth street, just off Fifth avenue, and close by Central park. The tide of fashion set to that neighborhood ten years ago, and the finest mansions in New York city have been built there since.

The mansion was presented to Grant by Messrs. Childs and Drexel and is a neat brown stone front house of a shade less than the average width of city houses, four stories high and with ornamented window casings. A bay window looks out from the parlor floor. The front faces the south, and the view from the rear window commands part of Central Park.

The home of General Grant assumed a cheerier aspect to-day. At 9:30 Dr. Shady left the house and went home.

The general is first rate as compared with yesterday.

U. S. Grant, son of Orville Grant, who had been at the general's house all night said: "The recent sinking spells have been due to trouble of the heart though it was no organic disease."

HE CONTINUES GOOD.

A 10:30 bulletin said General Grant was quite refreshed by his long sleep. He has taken nourishment twice since the last bulletin and is now preparing for a bath in bed. His pulse is good and the good condition of 6 o'clock continues.

GROWING WORSE.

1:45 p. m.—It is believed that General Grant is not so strong as he was this morning and it is feared he may be considerably worse. Dr. Shady has just arrived.

THE LAST DISPATCH.

3 p. m. General Grant is now very comfortable. His throat trouble yields to previous remedies. He has taken his food regularly.

General Grant's Funeral.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The friends of General Grant have been informed that he has expressed a desire to be buried at Washington and they are consulting as to what action shall be taken when he dies. It is said that General Sheridan will have the matter in charge and that the funeral will take place here. They express the hope that this service be delayed as long as possible, but whenever the time comes they expect to have the funeral take place here with grand and impressive national ceremonies.

He Killed Himself.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

MASON, Iowa, April 3.—Alvin Allen, of Walcott, while being pursued by an officer and a posse of men here yesterday, who wished to arrest him for forgery, fired four bullets at his pursuers and the fifth through his own brain, killing himself instantly. By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURGH, April 3.—The trial of ex-President Biddle and Oshier Reiber, charged with conspiracy to defraud the depositors of the defunct Pennsylvania bank, will be taken up in the criminal court next Monday. Navigators Open Late.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

Mr. Gray, the successor of Mr. Hayward as United States senator from Delaware.

Mr. Gray, the successor of Mr. Hayward as United States senator from Delaware, was born in that state in 1810. He is a graduate of Princeton and practiced law for 18 years prior to 1861, when he was appointed attorney general of his state. For some years he has taken an active part in politics. In the Democratic National convention of 1880 and 1884 he presented Mr. Hayward's name for the presidency. It is predicted he will fill Gray's seat ably and well. He is a handsome man as can be found in the country, a perfect Apollo in form, over six feet in height, with black eyes, and hair a little thin on the top of his head. He is a fluent speaker, with an easy and pleasant manner. He was appointed attorney general in 1879 for five years by Gov. Hall and was reappointed by Gov. Buckley last fall for another term of five years. That is the only office he has ever held.

Senator Garland's successor.

James Henderson Berry.

Mr. James H. Berry, who has been elected United States senator from Arkansas to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Mr. A. H. Garland as attorney general, is a native of Alabama. In 1848, when he was 14 years old, his parents moved to Arkansas. He joined the Confederate forces during the war and lost a leg at the battle of Vicksburg. At the close of the war he determined to become a lawyer, and by dint of almost constant study day and night he picked up sufficient knowledge to secure his admission to the bar. This was in 1868. Plunging into politics with his characteristic energy he was elected successively to the Arkansas legislature, to a circuit court judgeship, and finally in 1882 to the governorship of the state, and declined the nomination for reelection in 1884. He has received flattering majorities in every election in which he was a candidate and shows in his career to what height a man may rise in our country by his own efforts.

A Leading Telegraph Organizer.

THE LATE GEN. ANSON STAGER.

The death of Gen. Stager, at the age of 60, which occurred at Chicago on March 26, removes one of the greatest organizers and managers the electric telegraph has had. He began work at the age of 16 as a printer, with Henry O'Reilly, who afterwards became a partner in the building and erecting of telegraphs, taking Stager with him. When O'Reilly connected Harrisburg and Philadelphia with a line of wire he gave Stager charge of the office at Lancaster. This was in 1849. Here he exhibited such strong executive ability and resources that he was chosen superintendent of the Mississippi company line, which was projected to connect Buffalo, N. Y., with Louisville, Ky. The war found him in control of the telegraph systems which he had extended through Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. These were among the greatest of the respective states for military purposes, he being retained in charge. Gen. McClellan secured his services to organize the first military telegraph used in war, and subsequently the secretary of war appointed him chief of the United States military telegraph. Here he devised a system of telegraphing in cipher which baffled the most expert Confederate telegraphers to translate. Following the war came the consolidation of the principal telegraph companies, of which Gen. Stager was offered the superintendency. This he declined, but accepted charge of the control of the three divisions into which the company was divided. In 1870 he removed his headquarters to Chicago and founded the Western Electric Manufacturing company, besides leading in the development of electrical appliances in the great west.

Brighton Republican: "There was an unfortunate thing connected with my marriage," said Mulholland. "You see, we were married, and the rope was thin and had to reach from a three-story window." "And it broke," questioned a breathless listener. "No, the blamed thing held."

BENJO PINTO, the celebrated African traveler, who started for Central Africa last fall from Mozambique, came near starving to death not long after he began his march. He and his comrade, Lieutenant Cardoso, were stricken with fever in a district where famine prevailed. They could buy little food, and, being too ill to be removed, their party were soon reduced to sore straits. The Governor of Mozambique heard of their distress, and sent a relief party, who remained with them until the explorers were able to push on to ample food supplies beyond the famine district. Pinto is leading into inner Africa one of the best equipped parties that ever left the coast.

Head Pained Down

So go the victims of debility and languor, barely able to put one foot before the other; no heart to work; no good cheer for the present; no hope for the future. Brown's Iron Bitters builds up the system; enriches blood; sets liver at work; regulates heart; strengthens stomach; tones nerves. Then you are all right. Mr. John S. Kager, Waterboro, S. C., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for nervous debility and found it very beneficial."

Andrew Nichols fell from a barn roof near Lexington and received probably fatal injuries.

Wintry winds.

It's all right to sing the praises of the beautiful snow, and the merry sleigh bells, but they can't fill the bill with that sort of stuff when one is sitting with his feet in hot water, his head done up in flannels and with mustard plasters on both sides of his chest. What a person needs then is a thorough dose of kidney wort to act as a cathartic, for nothing will so quickly relieve that congestive, feverish condition which comes of a hard cold. Often these colds cause bilious attacks, lame back, disordered kidneys, rheumatism, eczema, etc. Kidney-Wort can be relied on to bring back a healthy condition.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1896.

THE CITY.

The gambling houses now run day and night.

Marshal Meyer turned twenty-four traps out of the police station this morning.

THE SENTINEL collectors will call on subscribers to-morrow. Have your change ready.

The Logansport Pharos says: "Miss Edith Swann, of Fort Wayne, is the guest of Miss Jennie Booth."

Hon. W. G. Colerick will certainly be a member of the court of claims commission if the governor signs the bill.

The council will not meet until a week from next Tuesday. An interval of three weeks occurs between the sessions this time.

Perry and Fort Wayne are rivals for the new railroad hospital that is to be established this spring by the Wabash company.

A Frenchman, who had a blue ribbon on his coat, was sent to jail for drunkenness this morning by the mayor. He was a solitary offender.

Two prisoners were sent to the prison north from Allen county last month. Fred Richards went up for murder, and Charley Headford for larceny.

The Staten-Zeitung was not published to-day. Good Friday is a solemn holiday in the Lutheran church and Hon. J. D. Sarnighausen observes the occasion.

Friday, April 10, has been appointed as Arbor day, and the city and township schools are expected to observe the occasion but they don't, and school property is barren.

Deputy Marshal Linscott yesterday arrested a vicious kid, who amused himself stoning the Seventh ward free school. Mayor Zollinger reprimanded the little fellow.

The Plymouth Democrat says: "Mrs. Lou Haberkorn, of Fort Wayne, is in town. Mrs. Fannie Reed, of Fort Wayne, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Woodward."

A new monthly, the Fort Wayne College Index, is soon to be issued. It is to be a sixteen page publication, printed on fine look paper and will be edited by Mrs. W. F. Yocum.

The polo dudes play their first game at the Academy rink Monday evening. The boys will appear in the old base ball suits and cubs have been provided to carry the rash young men from the floor.

Express messengers report that the express business for the last ten days has improved greatly. The study of the managers of the express companies is how to shorten the time a transportation of goods.

C. D. Jenny, whose quarrel with the Fort Wayne Electric Light company was aired in The Sentinel a month ago, has identified himself with an Indianapolis company, who will make a Jenny electric light.

A meeting of the directors of the Wabash railway was held yesterday, at which Mr. Gould's resignation as a member of the board was received and accepted, and Mr. E. C. Clarke was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Wabash road has finally made up its mind that the telephone is a very useful article in their line, and has ordered the instrument to be replaced. It is a great inconvenience to patrons of the road to remove the instruments.

The Bluffton Times says: "R. Rowington, of Fort Wayne, has leased the Central hotel. Mr. Rowington will manage the Robinson house at Fort Wayne for the present and his son Charles will have charge of the Central house here. They took possession yesterday."

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to The Sentinel, are as follows: Snow and rain followed by clearing weather, northerly winds, breaking variable on Saturday morning, higher barometer, slightly colder, followed by rising temperature on Saturday.

The Grand Rapids, Democrat says: "Mr. George S. Fowler of Fort Wayne, Ind., traveling freight agent of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, was in town yesterday, and reported that business is picking up rapidly on that road, and that the demand for lumber in southern Ohio, Indiana and further south and west, is now larger than ever known before."

Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Walls extend their warmest thanks through The Sentinel to their many friends who came out through the rain and happened in at the paragon last night, for their presence and generous tokens. That event was highly appreciated and will be gratefully remembered. They desire also to state that the two years of their sojourn at the Berry Street church have been the brightest and most encouraging of their ministerial life, and too much cannot be said in praise of their people for their hearty co-operation in the work.

The James assault and battery case, before Mayor Zollinger, was postponed for a week.

THE SENTINEL collectors will call on subscribers to-morrow. Have your change ready.

The teachers' institute of Allen county convenes in the circuit court room next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Walters, the Fairfield avenue junk man, has a filthy house and Health Officer Metcalfe will clean the fellow out.

Paymaster Shepherd, of the Wabash road, yesterday paid over the Indianapolis division for the February service.

Tony Trentman is the pup of a pretty boy baby, and if there is a happier boy on earth than Tony, he hasn't been reported.

City Health Officer Metcalfe reports 180 births since January 1, and 105 deaths. Twenty six deaths occurred from consumption.

A. E. Estabrook gave an excellent exhibition at the Princess skating rink last night to a large assembly. This young man does the best act seen here yet.

The Thayer-Leiter surety of the peace case came up before Mayor Zollinger yesterday and was again postponed until Monday. It is probable the matter will be completed.

John McCain last evening presented his friend, Bob Smith with a handsome gold medal, emblematic of the order of the Elks. Bob is popular, clever to a fault, and everybody likes him.

Late yesterday afternoon the poultry houses and outbuildings of Marion A. Webb, near the city, caught fire and were totally destroyed. There is a loss of nearly $1,000, on which there is sufficient insurance.

The Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis Journal says: "A contract was some time ago let for the building at Fort Wayne, up to the third story, and the supervising architect expects to have the same contractor furnish material for the third story, for which $75,000 additional was appropriated by congress five weeks ago."

Charles and Eliza Neel arrived home this morning from St. Louis. They will leave in the morning for Cleveland to fulfill an engagement there. They had intended to go to London but on account of the illness of their mother and sister the trip will be postponed till some future time when their father will accompany them. The commodore likes London better than any other city he has ever visited. The queen and princesses before whom he twice appeared expressed their desire to see Miss Eliza.

Minnie Madden appears at Perry tonight and at the Temple here to-morrow night in "Caprice," a four-act comedy from the pen of Howard P. Taylor, who claims to be the co-author of May Blossom. There is a refreshing simplicity in Mr. Taylor's treatment, and there is a direct exposition of human nature throughout the work that cannot fail to interest and entertain the public. The story of the play is that of a young artist who marries an ignorant mountain girl and then tires of her. When the young wife learns this she runs away, determined to become a lady, and the husband goes off to Europe. After some years he returns, finds his wife an accomplished woman, and wins her to a reconciliation.

THE BURGESS BLOCK.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company Files Suit for $50,000--
Other Court News.

In the superior court this morning the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., began proceedings to foreclose a mortgage for $50,000 against Henry Burgess, of New Haven, and sixty other people. The property involved is the Burgess block, on East Main street, and the pettoffice building, on Court street. The insurance company holds the first mortgage and other people have second claims. The property has long been in controversy and allowed to go almost to ruin for want of care and repair. Mr. Burgess, of course, did not care to do anything to the building, which was beyond his redemption, and it was managed as a sort of trust. Mr. Burgess, who was once wealthy, has lost about all his property, and a suit is now pending before Justice Ryan to deprive him of the little he holds. Oliver E. Fleming represents the insurance company in the suit, and will make a big fee out of the foreclosure suit.

The Wilbur ditch, in Milan township, will be sold in this city April 30. The Baker ditch will be sold at Mooresville April 21 and the Gerhardt ditch will be sold at Maples April 21.

Charles E. Bond has sold to Martin Brosnorker, for $200, Bond & Lombard's addition, lot 200.

Judge Hench will be here to open the superior court Monday next. The April term begins then.

The Koch case still occupies the attention of the circuit court.

Louis LaCruz and Francis LaCruz have been licensed to wed.

IN BACK CLOTH AND ABBER.

The Lesson of Prayer and Repentance Pre- paratory to the Day Social Whirl.
Why We Don Follow Rob-and Look Repentant.

Yesterday was Mandy Thursday, the most important feast of Holy week. The bells in Catholic churches are muffled and remain silent until to-morrow morning. This holy week is especially consecrated to the commemoration of our redeemer. In English use it is also called "Passion week." In the Roman Catholic church the special characteristics of the celebration of the Holy week are increased solemnity and gloom, penitential rigor and mourning. If any of the ordinary church festivals falls therein, it is transferred till after Easter.

All instrumental music is suspended in the churches, their altars are stripped of their ornaments, the pictures and statues are veiled from public sight; manual labor, although it is no longer entirely prohibited, is by many persons voluntarily suspended; the rigor of fasting is redoubled, and alms, deeds and other works of mercy sedulously enjoined and practiced. All church services of the week, moreover, breathe the spirit of mourning, some of them being specially devoted to the commemoration of particular scenes in the passion of our Lord.

This is Good Friday, the anniversary of Christ's death. Only in English countries is the term "Good" applied, its ancient title was Holy Friday. The Saxons named it "Long Friday." In the eastern churches it is the sorrowful Pasch. In Catholic churches the altar is denuded, the organ is silent and the mass of the presanctified is celebrated. In many European countries the day is a legal holiday, and in this country it is observed in commercial circles, to an extent that the great markets are closed. The Episcopal, Lutheran, and Reformed churches, as well as the Methodists observe the day.

To-morrow is Holy Saturday, an occasion preliminary to Easter Sunday, and the gay social whirl to follow. Easter is observed with great rejoicing by all christian churches in memory of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Greeks call it Vasga, applied to the Jewish feast of the Passover. It is called Easter in English, from the Goddess Eostre, who was worshipped by the Saxons with peculiar ceremonies in the month of April. The Asiatic church kept their Easter Passover, and others on the first Sunday after the first full moon in the new year. This controversy was determined in the council Nice, where it was ordained that Easter should be kept on one and the same day, which should always be Sunday, in all christian churches in the world. Easter services will be held in all the churches Sunday and Tuesday. The Sentinel will to-morrow note the ceremonies. The day is also notable as closing the Jewish Passover, celebrated with such solemnity this week.

THE FISH LAW.

Prosecutor Dawson Interposes an Objection to the Published Statement that it Has Expired--The Act Given.

A few days ago a city paper made the statement that the law against spearing, trapping fish or keeping the paraphernalia had expired. Prosecutor Dawson interposes an objection, as the enactment is still in force and given below to dispel all doubt: Whoever shall take any fish with a gig or spear during the months of March, April, May, November or December of any year, or shall trap any fish with a net, seine, gun, or trap of any kind, or set-net, weir or pot, in any of the lakes, ponds, rivers or small streams of the state--shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars, nor less than five dollars for each fish so taken. But the provisions of this act shall not apply to legitimate fishing with hook, line and pole, or to persons catching small minnows for bait, with a seine not over fifteen feet in length; or to the taking of fish out of the Ohio river at any time, or out of the St. Joseph river and Kan-kakee river between the first day of June of any year. Any person keeping a net or seine, for the purpose of fishing in any of the lakes or streams of this state in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than ten dollars.

Dunn Temperance Meetings.

Another good house greeted Mr. Dunn at the court room last night. It was a bad night, but the boys turned out and almost filled the house. The leader occupied all time, speaking about half an hour, making a strong appeal for sobriety. Quite a number of drinking men signed the pledge at the close, creating thereby a good deal of quiet enthusiasm. No far there has not been a single meeting, at which some goal of this kind has not been done. To-night the work will be organized. (Owing to other appointments Mr. Dunn will be compelled to close his labors in Fort Wayne Sunday afternoon. Meeting to-night.

Commander-in-Chief Kountz and Judge Advocate General Austin leave Toledo for an extended trip to the western departments next Tuesday night.

They will be at Lincoln, Neb., Thursday, April 11; Denver, Col., Saturday, the 13th; Salt Lake City, 15th; San Francisco, 18th, 19th and 20. After visiting Los Angeles and other points in California, they will meet the comrades of Oregon at Portland. They will then visit the departments of Washington Territory, Montana, Dakota and Minnesota, returning homeward by the Northern Pacific. Great preparations are being made for their reception at San Francisco and other points. Colonel Kountz will not stop here, as a city paper intimates, but wrote Frank Falke to accompany him. Colonel Kountz was Mr. Falke's guardian, and asked to assume the trust by Frank's father, who was killed in battle.

Appointing a Murder Case.

The transcript in the Walker murder case has been inspected by all the attorneys engaged in the case on both sides, Coffroth & Stewart, of Lafayette, having returned it to Clerk Ormsby, of Wells county. The document will be forwarded to the supreme court in a few days, and that body will decide whether there are grounds for a new trial. There is a belief among his attorneys that Walker will secure a new trial, and there is not so much of an ill feeling against him among the citizens of Keystone as formerly existed. It will be remembered that Walker, who was the township trustee, killed a man at Keystone, Wells county, in a quarrel about a woman. Walker is well known in this county, where his former sentence of twenty-one years in prison caused much surprise.

The Rome City correspondent has this gossip in the Kendallville News: "S. W. Dodge, of Fort Wayne, almost from his feet catching a fine string of bass through the ice last week. He was so lost to everything that he did not realize the coldness of his feet. He thawed out all right. —Mamma Reed, of Kendallville, and Lantley, of Fort Wayne, were in Rome City last week looking after their respective interests in the Sylvan Lake house. —Fletcher Moore, a fireman on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, is stopping at the home of his parents for a day or two while his engine is undergoing repairs in the shop. Fletcher says this winter has been a stunner."
